2027 HAINAN ISLAND PRO-AM FAQ

Where is Hainan Island, China?

Hainan Island is China's southernmost tropical island, located in the South China Sea, just off the southern coast of mainland China. Often referred to as the "Hawaii of China," Hainan is renowned for its year-round warm climate, pristine beaches, luxury resorts, and world-class golf courses. The island is home to the city of Haikou and the famous Mission Hills Haikou Resort, which features the world's largest golf complex.

How do you get there?

Direct flights from both Sydney & Melbourne are available and are included as part of the tour. Alternatively, you can fly via Hong Kong or other cities in Asia at your own cost but no allowance can be made to the package price for flight variations that you may make

Who arranges the flights?

The group flights will be arranged by CGE Golf in conjunction with Hainan Airlines

Why Mission Hills on Hainan Island?

Mission Hills Haikou has been selected as the host venue for the CGE Golf Pro Am as it offers an unrivalled golfing experience at one of the world's most prestigious golf destinations. Home to the world's largest golf complex, featuring 10 championship courses set across spectacular volcanic landscapes, Mission Hills combines exceptional course conditions, luxury accommodation, outstanding dining, and first-class facilities. Its unique blend of challenging golf, tropical climate, and renowned hospitality makes it the perfect setting for professionals and amateurs to compete, network, and enjoy an unforgettable golf experience on Hainan Island.

The Blackstone & Vintage courses are part of the DP World Tour each year!

Do we need a visa?

Visas are not required to enter China for Australian travellers.. ensure your passport is valid!

Do we walk or use carts?

Carts are included in your package price for all rounds

Are caddies provided & what's the recommended tip?

Caddies are included with the recommended tip of RMB200+ or around AUD $40 per round

What are the usual weather conditions in August?

The average temperature is in the high 20s with very little rain.

I want to come early/stay longer... I want to see more of Vietnam & play more golf

Please contact Steven at CGE Golf to discuss your specific requirements.

I have another question…

Feel free to contact the team at CGE Golf on 0413 726 245 or email play@cgegolf.com.au ... we will be more than happy to assist.

Look out for future emails that will be sent regularly to keep you up to date with Pro Am information closer to our departure

THE GOLF COURSES

Sandbelt Trails

The Sandbelt Trails course at Mission Hills Haikou offers a unique tribute to the famous Melbourne Sandbelt region, bringing the strategic design principles of Australia's most renowned golf courses to tropical Hainan Island. Characterised by expansive fairways, firm playing surfaces, deep revetted bunkers and subtly contoured greens, the course rewards thoughtful shot-making and precision rather than sheer power. With its natural sandy landscape, creative bunker complexes and excellent year-round conditioning, Sandbelt Trails provides golfers with a distinctive challenge and a memorable opportunity to experience the essence of Australia's celebrated Sandbelt style in the heart of Mission Hills Haikou.

Stone Quarry

The Stone Quarry Course at Mission Hills Haikou is one of the resort's most dramatic and visually striking layouts, carved through a spectacular landscape of ancient volcanic rock formations and massive quarry walls. The course winds its way through rugged terrain, creating unforgettable playing corridors framed by towering rock faces, exposed lava stone and natural vegetation. Combining strategic shot values with breathtaking scenery, Stone Quarry challenges golfers to navigate undulating fairways, well-protected greens and distinctive elevation changes. It is a course that delivers both a memorable golfing test and an extraordinary visual experience, showcasing the unique volcanic character that makes Mission Hills Haikou one of Asia's premier golf destinations.

Vintage

The Vintage Course at Mission Hills Haikou offers a delightful journey through the rich traditions of the game, combining classic design elements with the resort's unique volcanic landscape. Designed to evoke the charm and strategic character of golf's golden era, the course features wide fairways, thoughtfully positioned bunkers and greens that encourage creativity and precision around the putting surfaces. Set amongst lush tropical surroundings and natural lava rock formations, the Vintage Course provides an enjoyable and accessible challenge for golfers of all abilities while delivering the outstanding conditioning and memorable scenery synonymous with the Mission Hills Haikou experience.

Lava Field

The Lava Fields Course at Mission Hills Haikou delivers one of the resort's most iconic and unforgettable golfing experiences, weaving through a dramatic landscape of ancient volcanic lava formations that create a setting unlike any other in Asia. Jagged black lava rock borders the fairways and greens, providing a spectacular contrast to the vibrant tropical surroundings while demanding strategic course management from golfers of all abilities. With its expansive layout, challenging approach shots and stunning natural scenery, the Lava Fields Course showcases the unique geological character of Hainan Island and offers players a truly distinctive round that is as visually captivating as it is rewarding.

Blackstone

The Blackstone Course is the crown jewel of Mission Hills Haikou and is widely regarded as one of the most spectacular championship courses in Asia. Designed by renowned architect Brian Curley, this award-winning layout is carved through a dramatic landscape of ancient black lava rock, creating a visually stunning and strategically demanding golfing experience. Stretching across vast volcanic terrain, the course features expansive fairways, dramatic elevation changes, lakes, wetlands and pristine greens that challenge golfers at every level. Consistently ranked among the world's best new courses, Blackstone combines breathtaking scenery with championship-calibre design, delivering an unforgettable round that has hosted numerous international tournaments and remains the signature course of Mission Hills Haikou.

MISSION HILLS RESORT, HAIKOU

Mission Hills Haikou Resort is Asia's premier golf destination, home to ten world-class championship courses set across a remarkable landscape of ancient volcanic terrain on Hainan Island. Combining luxury accommodation, outstanding golf facilities, fine dining, a world-class spa and a vibrant entertainment precinct, the resort offers an exceptional experience both on and off the course. Golfers can enjoy an extraordinary variety of layouts, each with its own distinctive character, while non-golfing guests can take advantage of the resort's extensive leisure and wellness amenities. Renowned for its impeccable service, tropical climate and breathtaking natural scenery, Mission Hills Haikou delivers a truly unforgettable golfing escape and stands as one of the most impressive golf resorts in the world.
